NINTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR. This air monitoring station at 2001 E. 20th St. has been reported by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency as the dirtiest spot in the state in 1980 for the ninth consecutive year. Despite the consistent rating, the amount of suspended particulates decreased almost 21 percent from the 1979 level at the station. The smoke stacks in the background are part of the open hearth furnaces at Granite City Steel which are no longer in use.

Juliana Hoedebeck killed, sister hurt

Miss Juliana M. Hoedebeck, 65, of the 2600 block of Waterman Avenue, a lifelong resident, was killed and her sister, Miss Dorothy Hoedebeck of Granite City, was seriously injured when their auto was sideswiped at 11:20 a.m. Thursday by a tractor-trailer on Interstate 57, near Effingham, Ill.

Effingham County Coroner Michael McClure said Miss Juliana Hoedebeck was thrown out of the car, which passed over her as it spun out of control.

She was pronounced dead of head and chest injuries at St. Anthony's Hospital, Effingham, at 11:45 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 13, 1981.

Miss Dorothy Hoedebeck, 63, of the Waterman address, suffered a broken back and other injuries.

She was in serious condition Friday in the Intensive Care Unit at St. Anthony's Hospital.

According to the Illinois State Police, Miss Juliana Hoedebeck's auto was northbound on I-57 when the vehicle was sideswiped by a northbound tractor-trailer driven by Rex B. Barlow, 22, of Metairie, La.

Barlow, who was uninjured, was cited by state police for improper lane usage, an officer said.

Miss Hoedebeck was employed as a teacher at St. Elizabeth Parochial School for the past 18 years.

Key role by lawyers as school bargaining enters decisive stage

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record
The final week—before the 1981-82 school term—is here, with no employee agreements reached. But intensive negotiations are planned for the Granite City district during the current week in an effort to start fall classes on time Aug. 25.

As the bargaining continues and enters a decisive phase, much of the attention will be on the legal advisers, both from Belleville.

Attorney Raymond Frenkel is a key strategist for the American Federation of Teachers, and Attorney Harold Baker advises board members and administrators on the District Nine negotiating team.

William Schooley is the principal school district attorney, assisted by William Beatty, son of Federal Judge William Beatty. But Baker has been the school district's legal consultant at its bargaining talks in recent years.

Little has been said by either side this summer, other than that no settlement has been reached. But it is believed that the main point yet to be resolved by Federation Local 743 and the Granite City school system involves the amount the salary schedule should be changed.

There already are built-in raises for those faculty members acquiring additional college credit and for those whose length of service has not yet reached the maximum pay level. In addition, negotiations always have led to raises achieved by altering the schedule itself.

Both parties seem agreed that a schedule raise of some amount will be granted. Each is looking to its lawyer for help in bringing the talks to an amicable conclusion.

The two sides' present definitions of what the raise ought to be may differ considerably, but this is only an assumption, since the talks so far have dealt with issues other than money.

The proposed 1981-82 school budget of $25,841,384 includes $29,000 for contractual legal services, up $8,000 from the 1980-81 budget. A breakdown shows $17,000 for general legal work, up $4,000, and $12,000 for legal services related to negotiations, an increase of $2,000.

The new budget was made public when it was given tentative board approval last week.

It is on public display, pending a hearing Sept. 15, at which time it will be revised to include whatever increases are agreed upon for employee salary schedules.

Hearings also are to be held on a $339,115 budget for Quad-City Special Education Region 1, and on the tax levies of any accounts showing a rise of five percent or more, compared to a year ago.

The latter hearings stem from a newly-signed state law requiring a brief explanation to citizens of the reasons for any tax hikes.

Tentative tax levies amount to $8,238,480 (compared to $7,348,903 extended a year ago) and include:

Education $6,120,000 ($5,500,232), operations, building and maintenance $900,000 ($817,513), transportation

Clarification 'outlaws' slot machines

Slot machines are illegal gambling devices and will not be tolerated in Madison County. State Attorney Donald Weber said last week in a letter clarifying an earlier tolerant stand on charitable group's fund-raising. In a statement to Sheriff Emil Tofant, with copies sent to police departments in the county, the first-year county prosecutor eased back a bit from previous comments. Some persons felt his May 15 remarks had boiled down to an "anything goes" approach. Weber initially said he did not plan to prosecute games conducted by 'charitable' religious, fraternal, political or other eleemosynary endeavors, adding that they are not gambling within the meaning of state law, at least the way he interprets the law.

Last week, he said such an attitude does not apply to "permanent, on-going enterprises" such as the operation of slot machines.

Weber said that he had meant to refer to "one-time fund-raising efforts" like charity raffles or games operated at carnivals, fairs and homecomings when he gave them his blessing.

Noting slot machine confiscations by Granite City police, the state's attorney now agrees that "slot machines are

County's 111-year-old former jail may be declared unsafe

The Madison County Board will consider Wednesday whether to declare the 1870-vintage former county jail unsafe for further use.

Assistant State's Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith, legal adviser to the County Board, told Associate Judge Jonathan Isbell on Thursday that Smith will recommend that the board define the old structure as a dangerous building.

Isbell heard closing arguments on a suit to determine whether the jail should be preserved or torn down. He expects to make a decision within ten days or two weeks.

The judge said he plans to concentrate on whether an unique 1860 lease agreement drawn up between the county and the Goshen Preservation Alliance is binding.

If he decided it is binding, he would make permanent his temporary injunction preventing demolition. The temporary order has delayed a contractor from removing the building despite a razing contract awarded by the County Board.

The board initially indicated it was willing to lease the old jail to the Alliance, which hoped to obtain grants to renovate it. Later, the board changed its mind and concluded that the building was an eyesore and of no usefulness.

Judge Isbell said he does not believe it is up to him to determine the significance or value of the old jail and sheriff residence.

The county wants to raze the building in order to create a parking lot, and, perhaps, a site for a new administrative office building. The City of Edwardsville differs with the plan and has declared the building a historical landmark, in an effort to force its preservation.

County Board members have said that, although Edwardsville is the official county seat, they resent any attempt by the city to dictate county

Bands, floats in Labor Day parade

After an absence of 24 years, the Labor Day parade—once a tradition of labor organizations—will be revived this year in Granite City.

A massive Labor Day parade is being planned for Monday, Sept. 7 to include floats, marching units from labor organizations, bands and other typical parade fare.

A parade committee headed by Edwin Reiske, president of the Granite City Trades and Labor Council, and Robert Means, subdistrict director of the United Steelworkers of America, are meeting weekly to complete preparations for the parade which will start at 9 a.m. Labor Day.

Reiske said the committee plans to meet on Saturdays, Aug. 22 and 29, to complete its preparations and to receive requests from units that wish to take part in the parade.

To date, 26 parade marshals have been appointed to lead different units of the parade.

"We are planning to make this an annual event," Reiske said, adding that "We hope it will help instill pride in our union organizations by the younger men. In the past, the younger element of organized labor has taken their unions for granted, but years ago, union members had to fight for everything they got."

Similar parades are being held throughout the region, as well as the nation to recognize the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Federation of Trades and Labor

Must pay sewer tax

Taxpayers who lived in Nameoki Township but recently were annexed by Granite City still will pay the $1.314 special sewer tax if they are in the special sewer district, County Clerk Evelyn Bowles explained Friday.

The belief that persons whose boundaries have been changed by annexation would escape paying the tax so long as they no longer live in Nameoki "are just not true," Miss Bowles said.

Those homes are in Special Area Sewer District No. 1 and must pay the district tax to retire the bonds with which the sewers were built, Miss Bowles added.

A number of residents in cases where properties have been involved in annexations, changing the residences from Nameoki to Granite City have been expressing the belief that they would pay only the combined Granite

City rate and would not be liable for the sewer tax of $1.314 extended in the county's sewer district.

Miss Bowles said this would not be possible since taxes are extended by districts and not by township boundaries. So long as the person lives in the sewer district, he is liable for the tax until the construction bonds are retired.

The combined tax rate for major taxing bodies of Nameoki Township, including the sewer rate, is $6.526 while the combined Granite City rate, not including the sewer tax, is $5.745.

Therefore a taxpayer in the sewer district who lives in Nameoki Township will pay on a combined rate of $6.526, while residents of former Nameoki homes now living in Granite City and the special sewer district will pay on a combined rate of $6.745 plus the $1.314 sewer rate, a total of $8.059.

THE BIG BAND SOUND returned to Wilson Park Thursday night as Stan Fornaszewski and his "Big Band Machine" performed the fifth and final "big band" concert for the summer. Glenn Miller's "In The Mood," was one of the old standards performed by the group in an outdoor setting by the Sieveking Gardens near 27th Street.

Michael Manning to oppose Vadalabene for senate seat

Michael Manning, a 34-year-old Marine Corps Vietnam veteran who has been active in independent Democratic and non-partisan political campaigns in Madison County, has announced that he is seeking the 56th District Illinois State Senate seat now held by Sen. Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville.

The Granite City resident, formerly of Edwardsville, plans to conduct a door-to-door campaign based on the need for an overall economic recovery of the 56th District.

"I firmly believe that our next State Senator should play an important role in maintaining a healthy business and employment climate through his leadership," Manning said. "The incumbent has not been a leader in any sense of the word for many years, excluding his eagerness to be the first to start fist fights on the floor of the Illinois Senate. Sam's behavior has set a very poor example for area young people, who for the most part, already have little enough faith in our political system."

"In his 15 years of so-called 'crystal clear service,' Madison County has experienced little more than spurts of short-term economic growth and much long-term economic decay, in view of the fact that nearly 13,000 of our family members, friends and neighbors are presently out of work," Manning said that one of the keys to putting people back to work is to develop workable and fair-minded labor-management relationships in local construction, area manufacturing industries and government agencies. He says the role of the next State Senator should be that of a "go-between" seeking compromise when disputes threaten the loss of jobs or the closing of work places.

As a recent example, he cited the closing of the A. O. Smith plant in Granite City as a direct result of the failure of union, political and management leaders to reach a strike settlement in time to save 2,000 potential Madison County jobs.

"Once the doors are locked and the lights are turned out, it's too late to start worrying about where our people are going to get the money it takes to support their families. Unemployment checks and extensions don't cut it when a family health insurance plan alone, costs nearly $300 every three months."

Manning said that political leadership should come from the top down and that the work of a legislator should not be limited merely to creating more laws, often resulting in overly restrictive legislation, but must be aimed at providing the local leadership necessary to ensure paychecks and a better quality of life for the working people of Madison County. Manning is convinced that after having many discussions with young couples and elderly people, the second major concern of our citizens is the skyrocketing cost of medical care.

"How can Sam Vadalabene honestly say he represents the needs of working people when he has accepted thousands of dollars in contributions from the Chicago and Springfield-based lobbying groups of Illinois doctors, dentists and optometrists, among others," Manning said.

"Wealthy special interest groups clearly put their campaign cash where it will do them the most good, although it is always at the expense of the working people. I intend to make Vadalabene's official campaign contributions, and mine, available for public review throughout the campaign to give the people who are paying the bills a clear choice."

Manning said he welcomes his opponent to publicly debate the pressing concerns of the district as often as possible during the next eight months in order to focus attention on the issues rather than solely on personalities, names or faces. Manning lives with his wife Karin at 1251 Niedringhaus Ave., Granite City, where they are employed by the Family Support Unit of the Madison County Association for Retarded Citizens as supportive living supervisors. He is the father of two daughters, two-year-old Caitlin, who resides with the Mannings and eight-year-old Mary Caroline, who resides with her mother in Alton. The Mannings are expecting a child sometime in January.

Manning has lived in several Madison County communities over the past 12 years, following his return from four years of active duty with the United States Marine Corps. He served two tours in Vietnam, attached to several Marine "Attack Squadron" aircraft units, including the Marine's noted VMA-214 "Black Sheep Squadron."

Manning was an aviation ordnance man and was authorized to wear the Marine Corps Combat Aircrew Insignia in January of 1968 for flying on night missions over Vietnam aboard an illumination flareship.

Manning graduated from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in June of 1974 with a degree in journalism with a minor concentration in general business administration.

He worked as an organizer in the 1976 re-election campaign of former Illinois Governor Dan Walker and has been employed by many independent Democratic and non-partisan candidates in Madison County since 1970 to produce their brochures, radio and newspaper advertising. He also served as a temporary assistant to Madison County Treasurer Michael S. "Mick" Henkhaus in the early months of Henkhaus' present term of office.

Most recently, Manning was employed to assist in a media and direct-mail campaign which resulted in the defeat of two Third Judicial Circuit Court Judges.

Manning said that he has been offered support by many Democrats and independent voters throughout the Madison County area who say that they are "very dissatisfied" with the present state of affairs at the state and local level.

He says that he will be able to raise the required amount of money to match the Vadalabene campaign treasury by taking the issues to the working people of Madison County and asking for contributions to help the cause.

DRIVER INJURED

Elizabeth Theis, 20, of 2741 Harvey Place, was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 3:50 a.m. Saturday for treatment of injuries sustained in an auto accident at Johnson and Namecki roads. According to the report the driver was stopped for a red light at the intersection and was struck from the back by a red Mustang car which left the scene. Miss Theis said she hit her head on the steering wheel and had pain in the left hip. She was X-rayed and released from the medical center.

Road deaths decreasing

Illinois highway traffic fatalities in July totaled 163 as a result of 149 accidents.

Provisional statistics by the Illinois Department of Transportation and the Illinois State Police show a decrease of 3.2 percent from the 172 fatality total for July 1980 and a decrease of 7.9 percent from the 177 road deaths in July 1979.

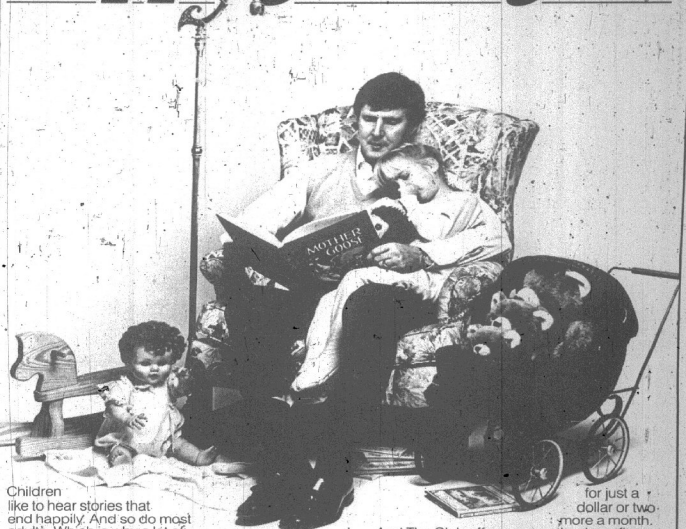

There were 23 pedestrians killed in 22 accidents, one pedal cyclist killed in one accident, nine persons killed in six railroad crossing accidents and 36 persons killed in 33 accidents involving motorcycles.

The provisional total of 1,049 fatalities for the seven months of 1981 is a decrease of 3.1 percent from the 1,083 deaths for the same period of 1980, and an increase of 1.3 percent from the 1,036 deaths in January-July 1979.

Following are the tax rates finalized for the Granite City and Granite City Township government by the office of Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles. The overall city rate, to be collected in September and October, is $1.582 per $100 of assessed valuation on properties, up from $1.517 collected last summer. Shown are the old rate and then the new rate for each city and township fund.

Cable TV studied by Venice Council

A presentation by Doyle J. Dugans Sr., regional manager for CATV Associates, a cable TV firm, was made to the Venice city council last week.

The Venice council has been considering cable TV for the past several months. Representatives from the city of Madison made a presentation several months ago. Madison is in the process of installing a city-operated and owned cable TV system.

The CATV firm has already obtained a franchise in Brooklyn.

They are asking for a 15-year franchise and would invest from $1 to $1.5 million in equipment.

The city would receive 5 percent on the gross subscriptions sold in the city.

Other advantages pointed out by the firm representative were that they would hire and train local residents in positions with the company, buy locally wherever possible, rent or buy offices locally and in addition would be paying the city local property tax.

The system could be operational in seven to eight months after the legal work, particularly with the utilities, was completed.

The company would also post a $15,000 performance bond to insure that CATV would do all that they promised.

The system would be a 30 channel group, including the current local St. Louis stations. The basic rental would be $9.95 a month, without any of the three movie channels offered.

The onetime installation charge would be $15 when the company would go through a neighborhood the first time. The charge would then be $20 if a person did not sign up in the beginning.

The firm hopes, if the contract is awarded them, to have 60 to 70 percent participation within the first three to four years.

Every alderman was given a complete booklet on the CATV operation.

Mayor Echols told Dugans the city was looking into several options and TV cable options and thanked him for addressing the council.

Echols noted that there are according to the 1980 census, 1,291 houses in Venice, a drop from 1,451 in 1970.

The Venice population count is 3,400 people, a drop of 25.6 percent from the 1970 census.

Property owners who are not keeping their grass and weeds cut, even on vacant lots, may have the city cut the weeds, and pay for the work. If not paid the city will put a lien against the property.

Weed cutting has become too costly for the city to continue the work, according to the mayor.

PEN PALS MEET. Sigrig Ebersbach from

Germany, left, and Kim Kleinschmidt of Granite City, meet for the first time at the Lambert St. Louis International Airport. The two young women have been corresponding with each other for 10 years and plan to continue their friendship with visits each year.

German pen pal visits here

A 10-year friendship which started in October 1971 when two girls began writing to each other was further cemented when they met in person for the first time at the Lambert St. Louis International Airport when Miss Sigrig Ebersbach arrived here from Germany.

Miss Sigrig Ebersbach and Miss Kim Kleinschmidt of Granite City, started writing to each other for the city to continue the work, according to the mayor.

The pen pals, who are both the only child in their respective families, have renewed their interests while vacationing in Colorado this month. They toured many historical points of interest in the west and upon their return to this area they visited St. Louis sites including the arch.

This week the two young women motored to Springfield, Ill., to view Lincoln's Home and tomb and surrounding government buildings. They also spent some time in Peoria, Ill., prior to returning to Granite City.

Miss Ebersbach is 24 years old and is employed as a pharmacist in a chemist shop near her home. She lives at 4690 Herne, West Germany, near Dusseldorf. The out of town guest has had little trouble with the language since she studied English in school and speaks very fluently, according to Mrs. Kleinschmidt.

Kim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kleinschmidt, 3309 Princeton Drive. She is 22 and is working at Wilson Park for the summer.

The two have been involved in a busy schedule of activities since July 15 when Miss Ebersbach arrived and will continue until this weekend when Miss Ebersbach plans to depart for her home.

CREWS LIQUOR IT'S STILL QUICKER!

Drainage problems mount

By BARBARA LANGRISH

The "water drainage problem in the Wilshire subdivision in Nameeki doesn't seem to be receding. Every time heavy rains fall the holding pond at the end of Ivy Lane backs up, spilling water, sewage, debris and fish into the streets and flooding basements.

Last week at the town meeting over 20 residents of the subdivision presented a petition of nearly 100 signatures to the trustees requesting action on the problem.

The chairman of the Wilshire Drainage Organization, a group of about 40 residents, said they will be "squeaking wheels" until the problem is solved.

"We would like to be here in February and we would like to see something put in the budget to take care of the problem. Until then, we intend to be at every meeting," Jim Noeth said.

"We're just a little fed up," Roger Levin, a resident who has lived there since 1972, added later in the meeting.

The danger to health is their main concern, Levin said. "We have children playing out in that water. It is filled with debris, transmission oil and sewage."

Board supervisor Harry Briggs told the group he already met with the members of the Metro-East Sanitary District earlier to discuss possible remedies.

"I think we do have a solution for the storm water," he said, and explained that a 12-inch line could be run from the street to the sewage line which runs along Maryville Road and empties into Horseshoe Lake.

Nameeki has put huge amounts of money into the levee district — nearly a million dollars. But what we have received up to now has been very little," Briggs said, and added the district's administrators have been cooperative. "They've already given us full access to their engineering department and lawyers."

Horseshoe Lake is within the boundaries of Nameeki; however, the sewage line that runs along Maryville Road belongs to Granite City. Briggs said he will meet with the city's administrators next week to talk about getting their permission to tap in on the line.

In the meantime, a sample of the water from the holding pond was tested last week for contamination. Carl Macios, chairman of Nameeki's health committee, said the analysis done by the county's Environmental Health Department showed the water was normal.

"There was no bacterial contamination, no sewage going in, and the Ph of the pond was normal. Because there is normal algae growth and fish in the pond, the water is normal," he said.

At this point a woman in the audience remarked, "Yes, we know there are fish in the pond. We find them in the streets."

Briggs seemed confident a solution could be worked out.

Some insurance costs cut by new fire rating; homes not affected Granite City's fire insurance rating has improved from a class six to a class five, which will reduce insurance premiums for businesses and schools. Fire Chief Don Parente has announced.

Notification of the improved fire rating was received in a letter from Marvin L. Austin, supervisor of the public protection section of the Chicago Fire Department's Office of Illinois in Chicago.

He noted that the better rating was the result of information gathered during a recent survey of Granite City by investigators who conducted hydrant flow tests and evaluated response time from the city's three fire stations to various parts of the city.

The rates paid by homeowners are not affected by the change and no reductions in fire insurance rates are anticipated unless the city improves its four, according to Parente. "We are hopeful we will be able to continue our improvements and qualify for a four next year," he added.

The better insurance rating of five, however, will result in an estimated annual savings to the Granite City School District of $5,755, or 10 cents per $1,000 value on its property, which is insured at $5,777,419.

Masonry church buildings should note a decrease from $1.75 per $1,000 value to $1.56, while the fire insurance rating for frame churches will drop from $3.45 to $3.33.

Hospital fire insurance rates should drop from $1.52 to $1.43 per $1,000 value and the library buildings should decline from $1.48 to $1.39.

Frame office buildings should notice a reduction in fire insurance rates from $4.93 to $4.74 per $1,000 and masonry office buildings should have a decrease from $2.32 to $2.18.

Banks also should note a decrease as the rates for masonry banks will decline from $2.32 to $2.18, according to a rate survey done for Parente by Ray Kaegel, president of the Granite City Board of Realtors and a fire insurance sales.

The change was made effective back to Aug. 1, but Austin notes in his letter, "the adoption of this change and the effective date is a matter of individual decision on the part of each (insurance) company."

Large commercial properties were not considered in developing the new public protection classification, he noted, and said some industries may receive a different rate than the class five.

New laws on child neglect, savings firms, condominiums

Governor James R. Thompson approved legislation Friday in the hope of assuring better protection of a child's welfare during adoption and child abuse proceedings.

House Bill 477 makes the definition of "neglect" in the Juvenile Court Act consistent with the definition in the Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act.

It also spells out factual circumstances which, if proved, establish a prima facie case of child abuse and neglect. It mandates the courts to order physical examinations and color photographs of alleged victims of child abuse.

HB 498 seeks to close a loophole in the Illinois Adoption Act that inadvertently gave favored status in adoption to a parent who had previously surrendered rights to the child or had been found unfit.

HB 488 amends the Adoption Act to put a 12-month limit on the time in which a natural parent can seek to revoke a consent for adoption on the basis that he or she was subjected to fraud or duress.

Thompson issued an amendatory veto of HB 483. He approved the substance, requiring guardians ad litem (attorneys appointed to protect a child's interest in juvenile court) to have at least one face-to-face interview with the minor before a legal hearing. The governor made a minor language change to make it consistent with other laws.

The governor also signed legislation Friday amending the Illinois Savings and Loan Act, enabling state-chartered savings and loan organizations to branch out on a statewide basis.

It will place them on an equal footing with federally-chartered savings and loan firms, he said.

Thompson signed a bill Thursday granting more rights to tenants of buildings being converted into condominiums.

It extends by up to 29 days the length of a time that a tenant has the right of first refusal in buying a condominium, and requires that owners give tenants the right to inspect the building and any documents relating to its condition.

Armed robbery at Kerr-McGee

The Kerr-McGee service station, 425 McCambridge Ave., Madison, was robbed of between $400 and $500 in cash by a man with a shotgun at 9:27 p.m. Friday.

According to authorities, a black man, about 24 or 25 years old, entered the station carrying a shotgun, pointed it at the clerk, and said to the attendant, "Open up the register and give me the money."

As clerk was handing him the money the robber said, "Have you got anything underneath?"

The man reportedly fled on foot going east on Fifth Street.

The robber was described as having a large nose, thick lips, an acne face, wearing jeans and an army type jacket.

$8,000 fire loss at home

Fire attributed to careless smoking caused $8,000 loss at 9:25 p.m. Sunday at a one-story frame home of Vera Lyerla, 2742 Washington Ave.

There was $6,000 damage to the building and $2,000 damage to its contents.

The blaze began in a front room and spread along east windows and the ceiling.

Granite City firemen extinguished that fire and also a fire at 1:30 a.m. Saturday at a mobile home at 2438 Ohio Ave., owned by Silver Pigg and occupied by Paul Pigg.

The origin of the Ohio Avenue blaze is being investigated. Flames reached the rear door area, steps and the side of the mobile home, causing $1,500 loss plus $500 damage to the contents.

Divorce rate up most among church leaders

"If you're not interested in family and marriage counseling, you'd better be."

That was the advice of Bill Little to 50 Illinois pastors and their wives at a late summer retreat.

Little, pastor of Christ Memorial Baptist Church in St. Louis, said over half (51 percent) of American marriages now end in divorce.

"And what's more amazing," he added, "is that the highest rate of increase in divorces is among clergymen."

Little gave three reasons couples stay married:

(1) They love each other (the best reason).

(2) They are afraid to get a divorce—one or the other is afraid he or she will be rejected, or can't make it financially, or will be cut off from the children.

(3) They believe that staying married is the right thing to do, outside of severe psychological or physical abuse.

"The divorce rate would go to 85 or 90 percent if couples paid no attention to the third reason," Little said.

"Remember, everyone on every level, including ministers in this room, has some problems with interpersonal relationships in his or her marriage."

At this point he underscored the necessity of making a commitment, of a determining to make marriage "work."

Little said the pastors they should tell their members, from the pulpit, that they will help in their marriage problems without condemning them.

"Also, let them know you have problems of your own; don't leave the impression that because you're a minister, your marriage is problem-free," he continued.

Getting along means accepting the personality differences of your husband or wife.

"If there are no differences in your marriage, there's no growth, only an echo."

Accept the weaknesses and strengths of each other—but don't try to reform the other."

In a question and answer period, Little said he charges non-members for marriage counseling. He recommended that other ministers also charge fees for non-member couples.

He said people usually feel they get what they pay for. He advises all couples to take this test:

(1) Let each list all the things he or she expects of a husband or wife.

(2) Then let each list what he or she thinks the other spouse wrote.

(3) Read the lists to each other and make comparisons.

Auto strikes stopped train

Kevin Krug, 23, of 2406 Illinois Ave., was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center following an auto accident at 11:50 p.m. Wednesday.

Krug was northbound on Rock Road and hit a train that was stopped at a crossing.

Krug was given a traffic citation by Madison county deputies for traveling too fast for conditions.

The measures signed by the governor included:

Senate Bill 688, which will upgrade the care given to hearing impaired persons receiving mental health services. It requires that recipients of those services be given a hearing test.

House Bill 337, which updates state laws to extend provisions covering the blind to also include guide dogs for the hearing impaired.

The bill precludes that guide dogs for the deaf cannot be considered public nuisances and also states that refusal to rent or sell housing to the hearing impaired using

JOHN ABBOTT

John Abbott retires after 21 years directing SIUE library

They came to toast and to toast—but mostly to toast—John Abbott, who is stepping down after 21 years as director of Lovejoy Library at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

They came from near and far—colleagues, friends and former staff members of the popular library director—to a recognition luncheon last week sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

As one colleague aptly put it, "You don't take time to roast someone for whom you don't have a great deal of respect and affection. Certainly, John Abbott has commanded both during his tenure at SIUE."

More than 135 persons were greeted at the luncheon by the Friends' president, SIUE Professor Emeritus Ray Spahn of Edwardsville.

Both SIU Chancellor Kenneth Shaw and SIUE President Earl Lazarsen paid tribute to Abbott, under whom the University library grew from 50,000 books housed in a farm house on Edwardsville's Bluff Road and teaching centers at Alton and East St. Louis to its present holdings of more than 700,000 volumes, 100,000 maps, 15,000 phonograph records, 400,000 government documents and 400,000 microfilm items.

Professor David Huntley, director of SIUE's Cultural Arts and Museums and a member of the board of the Friends of the Library, gave a monologue which included choice serious and humorous anecdotes from John Abbott's 21 years at SIUE and slide presentation depicting the library's history.

Huntley, incidentally, chaired the committee assigned to mark Abbott's voluntary resignation as library director.

Among the tributes to Lovejoy Library's first director was a letter from Emerita Professor Mabel Murphy of Sun City, Ariz., who served as fine arts librarian 12 years under Abbott. This statement by Miss Murphy probably describes best why John Abbott was a successful leader: "One trait of John's I particularly appreciated was his habit of hiring a staff member to do that job without constant supervision. He was always available for consultation at any time and his comments and suggestions were evidence that he knew what was being done."

The toast-roast luncheon was climaxed by the announcement that Ted Wood, an alumnus of SIUE, had been commissioned to paint a portrait of Lovejoy Library's first director to hang in the library. Since the portrait has not been completed, Abbott was presented a caricature of himself done in jest by Huntley. The caricature includes a key to many of Abbott's interests other than academics—gardening and tennis, to name a couple.

When a new director of Lovejoy Library has been selected, John Abbott will take sabbatical leave for six months. He hopes to return "to spend a good deal of my future efforts building the library's collections of books and documents pertaining to our region of Illinois."

Claims to be mother of abandoned babies here

An anonymous letter was received at the Press-Record offices Friday morning, addressed to Pat Foley, staff photographer, allegedly sent by the mother of Geri Elizabeth July, the two to four-day-old abandoned baby found July 27 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

What makes this letter even more interesting is that the writer also says she is the mother of Mary Elizabeth June, a two-day-old baby girl abandoned outside the Hope Clinic for Women on 21st Street in June of last year.

The one paragraph letter, unsigned, was written on a piece of loose-leaf paper—it reads as follows:

"I am the mother of Geri Elizabeth July, and also Mary Elizabeth June. If blood test or other test done you would find this to be true."

The writer also included the alleged date of Geri Elizabeth's birthday which is stated as "July 26, (Friday) at 6:20 p.m." This date and day do not correspond since July 26 was a Sunday. This is all of the information given in the unsigned letter.

The Illinois Department of Children and Family Services have requested a copy of the letter to include in their files on Geri Elizabeth July.

Any additional information about either baby, including medical background, that the mother is willing to make known can be sent to the Press-Record, in care of Pat Foley, or he can be reached by calling 878-2000 during normal working hours.

When You Shop Here at Home You Help Create More Jobs

Many years ago, when our town was just beginning, it had few people, fewer stores and no manufacturing as we know it today.

Our community grew because more people moved here in our trade area. Soon there was a demand for more stores and a need for local manufacturing.

People moving here meant building more homes, more stores meant more jobs and our industries needed workers. The word got around, and a steady stream of people looking for work and homes settled here.

Today, the more business our stores do the more people they hire. More jobs in our industries mean more business for all, and help spread and lower the tax burden.

Nothing very mysterious about it. Nearly every community grew the same way. So, shop at home and do YOUR part to help us all continue to grow.

GC youth in spotlight

The youths who have been enrolled in the Granite City LINKAGE program were put into the spotlight last week. The Illinois State Board of Education is presently producing a slide-tape presentation for use by its public relations department to inform people about the statewide program.

A photographer visited the local community and took still photographs of the young people at various plants and businesses in the area during interviews with company representatives about possible employment opportunities or touring various facilities here to be used in the presentation.

The program locally is a cooperative venture between alternative education and the CETA program. Participating agencies include the Madison County Educational Service Region, Madison County Office of Manpower Development, Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission and Coordinated Youth Services of Granite City.

Mrs. Shirley Blasingame is the program coordinator for the local Education-CETA linkage program which now has had 28 students complete the entire curriculum.

The slide-tape presentation will first be shown at a statewide Linkage Showcase Conference scheduled for Sept. 1 and 2 in Springfield.

Students involved with the program in the last 18-week program and photographed last week were Gary Bailey, Melinda Pinnon, Joe Beavin, Rob Talbert, Paula Wyatt, Lillie Baugh, Tammy Whitford, Bryon Crouch, Margie Lewis, Kenny Rayoun, Unable to attend the photo sessions were Mary Bachantini and Dean Worthen.

Too many toys clutter play

By CATHELINE R. MAUCK
Extension Adviser
Summertime is playtime for children, and this means that toys abound in the house and yard. Now is a good time to look carefully at your child's toys with an eye towards eliminating some of them.

While it is important that your child be able to select from several toys, the old adage, "The more the merrier," simply does not apply here. Toys lose their value when there are too many of them. And too many toys that are inappropriate for your child can make it difficult for him or her to select the right ones to play with.

Some guidelines for evaluating toys are suggested by Carol Miller, University of Illinois child development specialist. First, find out which toys your child is not using, and then try to determine why they aren't being used. If the toys are too advanced for your child, put away so it will be in good condition when your child is ready for it.

Besides not being appropriate for your child's abilities, advanced toys sometimes pose health hazards for a young child. These toys may be painted with toxic materials or have pieces that easily break off. When a child outgrows a toy, Miller recommends helping the child determine what to do with it. Rather than disposing of the toy for the child, you can build your child's sense of responsibility by letting him or her determine the fate of the toy. In some cases you may need to help with the decision by offering some options, such as giving the toy to a day care center, a charity or to a younger child.

Whatever the child decides to do, be sure to respect the decision, even if your child decides to keep the toy. Some children become attached to certain toys and find comfort in having them around.

Broken toys should be removed from use until they are either repaired or disposed of, Miller urges. Besides the danger of playing with something in poor condition, the child may become frustrated when the toys don't function as it should.

Children tire of certain toys at times, but this doesn't always mean that the child has outgrown them. In this case, it's often best to remove the toys for a few weeks. Rediscovery of a toy after an absence may stimulate the child to use it in a new way.

Besides looking at the toys your child doesn't play with, it is also important to notice the toys that he or she frequently uses. "A well-used toy means that the toy is probably serving a very important function for the child," Miller notes. Your observations can help you in your next toy purchase.

Because your child is growing and changing, the toys he or she uses need to be evaluated periodically. Whether toys are purchased at the store, made by hand or found in the kitchen closet, they serve your child best when they are in good condition and appropriate for your child's developmental level and interests. Having too many toys around can diminish the usefulness of those that are appropriate for your child.

Stock prizes up at DuQuoin state fair

Exhibitors in the Du Quoin State Fair's 1981 livestock show will vie for $77,000 in premiums, according to Gene Milleville, the Fair's livestock show manager. This is an increase of more than $10,000 from 1980. The beef cattle and steer shows will lead the way with $25,000 in premiums. Other livestock department premium totals are: dairy cattle, $20,000; swine, $10,700; sheep, $10,110; heavy horses, more than $5,600; and mules, $4,875.

Milleville says the livestock show again coincides with the regular Fair and the judging schedule will extend over a longer period than usual, beginning Sunday, Aug. 30, and ending Sunday, Sept. 6. Most livestock show activities will center in or near the Livestock Exhibit building. For the first time at the Fair there will be shows, exhibits and contests for area 4-Hers, Saturday, Aug. 29, the day prior to the beginning of the regular livestock show.

Showing and judging of livestock will be on the following schedule: Beef cattle breed and steer shows will be Sunday through Tuesday, August 30-Sept. 1. Beef cattle department superintendent is James Walsh, Carmi area cattlemen; the judge, Steve Radokovich of Earlham, Iowa.

Dairy cattle breed shows will be Friday through Sunday, Sept. 4-6. Superintendent is Bill Jennings of Olney; supervisor, Lester Helms of Belleville; the judge, James W. Lewis of Orient, Ohio.

Swine breed and barrow shows will be Friday and Saturday, Sept. 4-5. Bill Murry of Sesser is superintendent; the judge still is to be announced.

Sheep judging will be Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 31-Sept. 1. Department superintendent is Terry Murry of Marissa; the judge, Harry Bloom.

The heavy horse show will be Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, Sept. 1-2 and 4. The mule show will be Thursday and Friday, Sept. 3-4. Willard Graham of Tilden is superintendent of both departments; the judges are Earl Hargis of Sparta for heavy horses, and Guy Bynum of Altalia, Ala., for mules.

Arrival times on the grounds for beef cattle, dairy animals and swine are no later than noon the day prior to the beginning of judging.

Sheep exhibitors are to have their animals in place two days before. Horses and mules are to be in stalls by noon Aug. 31. Most livestock exhibitors will have their animals released from the Fairgrounds upon completion of judging or the day after judging has been concluded.

Livestock show premium books and entry forms are available from the Fair office at 618-542-5484.

Soybean plot tour planned

By KENNETH METZ

Extension Farm Adviser Don Lange, Edwardsville, will lead a Soybean Variety Plot Tour which will be held Thursday, Aug. 27, at 6 p.m. at the variety plots on Center Grove Road south of Edwardsville.

Gary Pepper, University of Illinois Soybean Specialist, will discuss soybean varieties and other soybean cultural information. There will be plenty of time for each person attending to inspect the variety plots.

The plots were planted by Don Lange, Edwardsville area farmer, for the University of Illinois, Agriculture Extension Council in Madison County. Ben Givlio, Fosterburg area farmer, is chairman of the Extension Council Agronomy Committee, planning the variety plot tour.

The varieties in the plots include Williams, Williams 79, Union, Elf, Fiske, Pella, Will, Spirite, Pfizer Genetic CB 391, AP 350, BT 380, Hi-Soy 425, Franklin, Cumberland, Desoto, and Mitchell.

To locate the plots, go south of Edwardsville on Route 159 about 1/2 miles to Center Grove Road. This is the road north of Edwardsville Bargain Center. Turn west of Center Grove Road and go approximately 1 1/2 miles. The plots are on the south side of the road.

The wheat streak mosaic virus was a major problem in Madison County this past spring and summer.

It's important that farmers do a good job in controlling volunteer wheat this fall. This is the only practical way of controlling the wheat streak problem.

The wheat streak virus is spread by the wheat curl mite. The virus, over summers on volunteer wheat, corn and certain wild grasses. Volunteer wheat is the biggest problem since volunteer wheat is a good host for both the wheat curl mite and the virus.

The curl mite cannot survive larger than a few days without a host plant. Therefore, it is important that volunteer wheat be controlled for 2 weeks or more in the fall before wheat seeding. The best method of control are clean plowing or killing the wheat with a herbicide.

With the above normal rainfall and warm August we have had in Madison County, various soybean diseases have been showing up in isolated spots in the county there have been cases of Septoria Brown Spot, diseases showing up around the state include Phytophthora-Rot and Stem Rot, Anthracnose and purpose seed stain and Diaporthe pod, and stem blight.

+++
These diseases cut yields by prematurely defolating the soybean plant and by attacking the stem, killing the plant. Other signs of these diseases include poor fill of the upper pods, small seeds and moldy seeds. Septoria brown spot will appear as brown reddish spots on leaves. Plant stunting and poor pod fill will also occur.

Producers should be careful when storing soybeans which include moldy seeds because they are more susceptible to storage molds. Storage at 13 percent moisture will prevent storage mold problems.

Honored for service

Governor James R. Thompson congratulated his budget director, Robert Mandeville, Tuesday, on receiving the National Governors' Association Award for Distinguished State Service.

"I have been saying for months that Bob Mandeville has out-Stockmaned David Stockman in budget-cutting this year," Thompson said.

"He has done an excellent job. He has always publicly kept the State of Illinois on a sane and sound fiscal course. I am proud of Bob Mandeville's service to the people of Illinois. He richly deserves this honor."

Mandeville was one of 21 winners nationwide in the fifth annual awards of the honor.

"Our awards program is the first nationwide effort to recognize distinguished service to state government by both state officials and private citizens," Georgia

Governor George Busbee, association chairman, said. "These men and women have not only served the citizens of their own state exceptionally well but they have in many cases developed creative approaches to dealing with problems that affect the nation as a whole."

The Air Force is sending a special team of officers to the St. Louis area to interview individuals interested in becoming Air Force Flight Officers. Captain William Stockman, Recruiting Service Squadron Commander in St. Louis, stated, "The Air Force now has a limited number of immediate openings for qualified persons in its Pilot and Navigator programs. The team will be talking to people who are less than 26 1/2 years of age and who are college graduates or who will be graduates within the next six months."

These specialists will be conducting interviews in St. Louis on Aug. 28 and 29 at the Airport Marriott. Interview appointments can be set up by calling (314) 2630319 collect.

For this year's assessments, the state is to certify a factor to each county to be applied to 1980 actual assessments. That factor will raise or lower the 1980 aggregate assessments to the countywide level required by the new formula.

A local assessment review committee also is created for each county to advise local assessing officials in their implementation.

"This means the city property owners are going to have to pay more of the school, county and district tax burdens through increased urban assessments if tax levies of the tax agencies are to be met," Barton said.

In stating the new legislation, Governor Thompson said that economic value per acre of each grade of farmland will be computed by dividing the net return for an acre by the five-year moving average of the Federal Land Bank farmland mortgage interest rate.

The law requires an equalized value per acre for each grade of soil at one-third of the economic value.

The top three bus operators and the winning maintenance team traveled to Peoria, Illinois, August 2, to compete in the Illinois State Rodeo, finished fifth, and James Nathan, Bi-State's third place operator, finished eighth in Peoria.

Cowboys hot bats defeat McDonald's twice

By RICK WELLE
For the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Corral Liquor Cowboys were relaxed in just about everything they did yesterday afternoon at the Granite City South baseball diamond.

They were so relaxed, they made a sweep of McDonald's in Inter-City League action last easy, winning 8-6 and 9-2. The two wins meant less to Corral than did the two losses to McDonald's. The Cowboys had already locked up first place in the regular season, but McDonald's was still chasing the Maryville Red Sox for second place. Corral finished its regular season at 19-3 while McDonald's fell back to 9-10 with one game remaining.

McDonald's, win or lose in its final game, finished in third place in the regular season and will face the Red Sox at Maryville Sunday at 1 p.m. Corral plays at Granite City at the same time against the fourth-place Collinsville Chiefs. Yesterday's double-header was simply a matter of the Cowboys flexing their batting muscles. Corral destroyed McDonald's pitching with 21 hits in the two games, including two home runs and two triples in the first game.

"We were hitting good today," said Corral manager Ken Crawford. "We had a good year... 19-3, you can't do much better than that." One Cowboy in particular had a good year—especially against McDonald's. Jeff Page in the first inning for three runs. Mike Clark walked and Tom Greco tripled him home. Dave Hagenbroek then drilled a two-run homer for a three-run Cowboy lead before McDonald's even had a chance to bat.

McDonald's came back with one run in the first when Danny Schaus doubled and came home on a sacrifice by Jeff Parker. It then tied the game in the second on a triple by Bob Stuegmeier and singles by Al Yount, Steve Flicker and Parker. It again looked as if Corral was going to run away with the game in the third when Mark Clark tripled home two runs and scored. But an RBI single by Mark Linhart kept McDonald's close.

Tretter's homer came in the fifth. At the time it gave the Cowboys a 7-4 advantage, but McDonald's came back with two in the sixth on a two-RBI double by John Fritchard to make it 7-6. Corral added an insurance run in the seventh and Doug Rains set McDonald's down in order to save the game for Crawford. Game No. 2 was basically played in the first three innings. The Cowboys' shelled starter Dave Weil, who had beaten Corral twice earlier in the season, for two runs in the first and four in the second. Both Green and Dave Hagenbroek had doubles in the fourth inning.

The winning pitcher for Corral was Dan Hirstein, who finished the regular season with a perfect 6-0 mark. He struck out 11 and walked only two en route to his victory yesterday. While meaningless to Corral as far as its final placement in the standings, Crawford was elated over the double victory. "For us it's just a psychological advantage going into the playoffs," he said.

"If we take two games in the first round, which I think we will, and then face McDonald's in the finals we'll have the advantage. Plus, there's always the pride in winning."

Chiefs playoff hopes still alive

It was the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt who said, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself." But it was the Collinsville Chiefs Sunday who refused to fear anything, including Edwardsville's Les Fear, and they taught Edwardsville a history lesson of its own.

A Keith Throm broadcaster up the middle that drove in Scott Carson from third in the bottom of the eighth inning helped Collinsville salvage the second game of the doubleheader, 2-1.

In doing so, the Chiefs kept their playoff hopes alive and defeated Edwardsville for the fifth time in six meetings, the only loss being in the opening game yesterday, 4-2.

Now, Collinsville, 5-14, must wait for the outcome of Tuesday night's game between McDonald's and Edwardsville to see how the playoff picture stands. An Edwardsville win would end Collinsville's season.

But in the second game yesterday, behind the pitching of Greg Peter, Collinsville would not be denied victory.

After the game was sent into extra innings, Edwardsville made a pitching change. The Nationals removed Steve Stoltz, who had pitched seven innings of six-hit one-run ball, in favor of relief pitcher Les Fear.

Carson led off the inning with a single past second. After being caught stealing, he ran for second base and stole safely with none out. Mike Hefflin filed out, Barry Wilson walked and Carson stole third base, his fourth stolen base of the day. That put runners first and third with one out.

Rich Lambert popped out to the shortstop setting up Throm's two-out hit. "The first pitch and I'm going to end the game," Throm said, looking toward the Collinsville bench as he walked to the plate.

It wasn't so. He waited one pitch longer. On an 0-1 pitch from Fear, Throm hit a bouncer up the middle that nobody could field cleanly and Carson scored the winning run.

In the first game, Collinsville manager Jerry Phelps summed up the scene quickly. "We just got beat. We weren't getting the key hits," Phelps said. That they weren't.

The Chiefs led seven men on base in game one, including three that had been walked in the third inning.

Hunting regulations for 81-82 set

GRANITE CITY — Final regulations setting the 1981-82 hunting season frameworks for certain migratory birds have been approved by the Interior Department's U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The final rules, published in the July 29, 1981, Federal Register, set the limits on dates and times when hunting may begin and end. They also designate hunting areas and set bag and possession limits during the early hunting seasons that open before Oct. 1. State wildlife officials may now select season dates and daily bag and possession limits from within these frameworks.

The early season regulations include these species: Mourning doves, white-winged doves, band-tailed pigeons, rails, woodcock, common snipe, and gallinules; teal in portions of the Mississippi and Central Flyways during September; sea ducks in designated areas of the Atlantic Flyway; ducks in Iowa, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Florida during September; sandhill cranes in portions of North and South Dakota; and certain migratory birds in Alaska, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. Also included are falconry seasons in certain states meeting Federal falconry standards.

Changes made this year for this group of birds include:

—An increase in the management limits in Central and Eastern United States (Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, and Wyoming) to 12 doves daily and 24 in possession. As an option, states may select bag and possession limits of 15 and 30 doves, respectively, under a shorter, 45-day hunting season. A modification in the boundary separating Georgia's two dove hunting zones is provided, and a dove hunting season of 70 full days is offered in Arizona.

—Minor changes in the sandhill crane season lengths for North Dakota, with the addition of one county in the State to the hunting area.

—Experimental September duck seasons offered to Tennessee, Kentucky, and Florida. These five-day seasons will allow greater harvest of locally-breeding wood ducks and early migrating teal. This year's regulations also continue the experimental September duck hunting season in Iowa.

—An experimental band-tail pigeon season offered in three counties of western North Carolina.

—Protection from hunting for three additional species of ducks in Puerto Rico. Because states may choose to make their own regulations, more strict than the limits prescribed in the federal frameworks, hunters are advised to check their state regulations carefully.

Additional information on the Federal early hunting season frameworks is available from the Service's Office of Migratory Bird Management in Washington, D.C. at (202) 254-3207 and the agency's regional offices. Because states may choose to make their own regulations, more strict than the limits prescribed in the federal frameworks, hunters are advised to check their state regulations carefully.

Father-son team wins tourney

EDWARDSVILLE — The father-son team of Herman and Dutch Schroeder won the St. Louis District Father-Son Golf Tournament championship here last week at Sunset Hills Country Club.

The Schroeders of Granite City beat the favored duo of Henry and Joe Malench by two strokes over the par 71 course at Sunset Hills. The Schroeders finished with a four-under 67, while the Malenches finished at two-under, 67. The defending champions, Al and Allen Schmidt of Norwood Hills finished with a 76 in the 30- and over division.

Dutch Schroeder, 21, was a standout on Granite City South High's golf and tennis teams. He still holds the golf team's record scoring record. He also has played college golf at Arizona State University. His dad, Herman, is a 19-handicap player.

The Schroeders are members at Sunset Hills, but most of Dutch's golfing time has been spent at Arlington Golf Club near Granite City. "I came up and played a practice round," said Dutch. "This was my first time. I've never been able to talk my dad into playing," he said. "He played super and I had a hot putter. He was able to put the ball on the greens and I got it down."

The younger Schroeder, had only one bogey, but offset it with five birdies. None of the putts was inside 25 feet.

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Cardinals today announced a promotions schedule for the remainder of the 1981 baseball season. The line-up includes several new events for Busch Memorial Stadium as well as some promotions that were re-scheduled from earlier dates.

In announcing the special promotions program, Cardinal President August A. Busch Jr. said, "Our main objective is to put the strike as far behind us as quickly as possible and to provide baseball to our great fans who have been deprived of their beloved game for 50 years. We have a great deal of baseball ahead of us, and we want to share the excitement of the remainder of the season with as many fans as possible."

Highlighting the new plan is a discount ticket program that will cover each of the Cardinals' 22 home games. "Dollar Days" at Busch Stadium will begin on Aug. 17 when the Red Birds return to St. Louis for their first home game since the All-

Star game kicked off baseball's second season.

During "Dollar Days," all general admission tickets, regularly priced at $3.50, and bleachers, normally $2.50, will cost just $1 each. These tickets will be made available when the gates are open for each scheduled game.

Another fresh feature for the 1981 season is slated for Aug. 23 when the Cardinals host "The Busch 10,000" at the ballpark. The first 10,000 fans in line for the Cardinals game against the Los Angeles Dodgers will receive a free ticket to the terrace reserved seating area. Members of the team and Anheuser-Busch. Ticket windows will open at 9:30 a.m. for the promotion. More information on this special activity will be forthcoming. Aug. 23 is also Camera Day when fans with cameras are allowed on the field to take pictures.

The Cardinals' promotions department has planned a third special day for Cardinal Boosters when the first "An Appreciation Day" takes place on Tuesday, Sept. 29 against Montreal. All paying fans in attendance at that game will receive a gift card redeemable for a free reserved seat for any game during the 1982 season, except for opening day. In addition to these three ticket offers, the Cardinals' promotions schedule includes the premier appearance of "Fredbird" and "Bob Broeg's Redbirds." Book Night and such favorites as Helmet Day, Visor Day, T-Shirt Day & Camera Day. Each of the Cardinals home dates is covered by at least one St. Louis promotion. "Bob Broeg's Redbirds," Book Night is scheduled for the Aug. 21 game against the Dodgers. The first 10,000 adults (over 15) at the game will receive a free copy of Broeg's new book, "Hunter Night" at the Stadium.

When the Chicago Cubs come to town on Sept. 7 the first 10,000 paying fans will receive a free red and white Cardinal visor which features the famous birds-on-bat logo.

All children with a paid admission will be given a red souvenir batting helmet on "Helmet Day," Sept. 13 when the Mets visit St. Louis.

Community Federal Savings & Loan and KSDK-TV are sponsoring two "Fredbird Poster Nights" when the Cardinals host the defending world champion Philadelphia Phillies, on Sept. 23 and 24. A 24" by 30" color poster of the Cardinals mascot will be given to each paying fan in attendance at those two games.

All those who come to the stadium to see the Pirates play the Cardinals on Sept. 25 will receive a 2-for-1 pass good for the Mid-America theaters in the St. Louis area.

On Sept. 26 when the Pirates take on the Cardinals, all children with a paid admission will receive a free Cardinal T-Shirt replica of the uniform top featuring the famous birds-on-bat logo.

Along with these special nights, the Cardinals promotional activities include previously scheduled Ladies-Senior Citizens specials on Aug. 19, Aug. 26 and Sept. 4. KMOX Chevrolet autograph booths each Friday home game, and the third annual Natural Light Stadium Run on Sun., Sept. 27.

There is a possibility that more special promotion dates will be announced.

Steamers open Nov. 20

The expanded MISL schedule calls for each team to play 44 regular season games — 22 home and 22 on the road. "In my 25 years in professional sports, I've never seen a better home schedule," said Len Kerrie, chief executive officer. The Steamers will play at the Checkereddome on 12 Friday nights, three Saturday nights, one Saturday afternoon, four Sunday afternoons and two Wednesday nights. The two Wednesday evening contests will be played on Nov. 25, the night before Thanksgiving, and on Dec. 30, during the Christmas holidays.

All night games will begin at 7:35 p.m. All Sunday afternoon contests will begin at 2:05 p.m., with the Saturday afternoon game on Jan. 2 beginning at 1:35 p.m. Mike Sanger, the club's general manager, noted that the home schedule's balance is very attractive. "We'll play four home games per month starting in December and continuing through April. Our Sunday afternoon home games will begin Feb. 7, immediately after the football season is completed."

Livingston: An aura that spells out sports

By JEFF WILSON
For the Press-Record

When her Greenville College women's softball team made it to the national softball tournament this spring, Mary Livingston was a little bit surprised. When her team was one of the final eight, she was again a bit surprised.

But when her team finished second out of a field of 252 in the nation, she was elated.

"We weren't supposed to be there. We got an at-large bid and we lost our first game in 14 innings," she said. "Finishing second was great."

Livingston, at age 21, looks formidable at 5-6, 145 pounds. Her short brown hair and athletic looks lend an aura to her that spells out sports.

Her smile and words tell people she likes that aura. As an athlete at Granite City South she lettered in five different sports: softball, volleyball, basketball, field hockey and track. Her favorite sports, she said, are softball and volleyball.

Each game this past softball season was a challenge, she said. Playing Quincy College, though, was one of the many highlights she remembers.

"We always lose to Quincy. That was more exciting because we beat them," she said.

Livingston sets her sights on coaching, as she maintains her B average and majors in physical education at Greenville College. "Sometimes I think it's a drudgery playing sports."

There are so many times you just want to hang it up. But I won't. I just enjoyment out of it," she said.

Another reason she enjoys sports is the atmosphere surrounding athletics at Greenville College. Women's sports are more successful in competition than are the men's sports. "The guys are always going to dominate (in the newspapers), but we're dominating right now," she said.

The second-place softball trophy was the highest ever earned by a Greenville College team. In 1978-79, the women's basketball team won two state championships and the women's volleyball team placed ninth in the national tournament.

As a member of the softball team, Livingston played third base her freshman and sophomore years and first base this season. But no matter the position, she's never one to deny she has her weaknesses.

"Hitting is my weakness. But you've got to have defense. I'm not one of the regular hitters (she often has a designated hitter batting for her). I'm not discouraged, though, because I'm helping out in other ways," she said.

Other ways include sparking in the field and making few errors. But she has had her bad games. She recalled a game against Illinois College when she made a few errors and "couldn't hit beans." She considered it her worst game.

Interestingly, she quietly is one to admit her favorite sport is volleyball. "It's not a one-man team. I'm a setter and you have to know the players on your team. Power volleyball is going somewhere," she said.

"Livingston is dedicated when she is on a team and she is humble when she talks about her success. She is also a girl who looks forward to the upcoming year in sports. She strives for the challenge. "When I'm on a team I'm dedicated and I think everybody that's on it should be too," she said.

Eastern seeking winning season

CHARLESTON — Eastern Illinois University's revitalized football program, solidly entrenched under the leadership of Darrell Mudra, seeks a fourth straight winning season with the opening of fall practice earlier this week.

The Panthers, 30-9 over the past three years, won a notch by competing for a tournament spot in NCAA Division I-AA. The season opens at the University of South Dakota on Sept. 5. The first home game is against new Mid-Continent Conference member Southwest Missouri State on Sept. 12.

Although 27 lettermen answered the first call this week, the Panthers will be minus a batch of starters including three All-Americans who contributed heavily to EIU's recent success, defensive linemen Pete Catan and Randy Melvin and wide receiver Scott McGhee.

The 1981 offense will be constructed around the arm of quarterback Jeff Christensen and a defense with veterans at linebacker and the secondary. Christensen (Gibson City), just a junior, shared QB duties with Chuck Wright last year but appears to have the job to himself this fall. Although playing just half the time in '80, he still managed over 100 yards, 13 TD passes and set single game records of 365 yards passing and 370 yards total offense against Northern Michigan.

"Jeff has worked very hard since the end of last season. He has a real knowledge of our system, is very bright and we can carry our offensive concepts into a little more detail with him," said Mudra.

Acquainting himself with new receivers in fall drills will be the main objective for Christensen plus the staff must piece together a new offensive line which has three-year lettermen, linebackers Tom Murray (Arlington Heights-St. Viator) and Ira Jefferson (Moline), backs Wilbert James (Washington, DC-Woodson) and Kevin Jones (Springfield-Lanphier) plus Associated Press Second Team All-American Kevin Gray at free safety. Gray led the conference with seven pass interceptions for 150 yards and was also named the MCC "Back of the Year." "Kevin had a great year but he's complemented by such a fine group that it will be difficult to single out anyone this year. For instance, Wilbert James had a great spring practice ... we expect him to really come into his own this fall."

The major fall camp concern will be finding three new defensive linemen to play alongside the only returning starter, Keith Wojnowski (St. Anne-Kankakee Bishop McNamara).

West star on to Lebanon

LEBANON — A top-notch basketball player from Belleville Township High School West has signed a letter of intent to attend and play basketball at McKendree College this fall. Ben Smith, who played on the Maroon cage squad for three years, will play basketball for Coach Harry Statham during the 1981-82 stint.

A 6'11", 175-pound guard, Smith served as captain of the basketball team at Belleville West last season and was named to the All-Southwestern Conference team as well as was selected to the WBV-Radio All-Star squad in 1981.

In addition to his athletic achievements, he was a member of the National Honor Society at Belleville West and was a finalist for the Citizenship award.

Horizons to fold

CHICAGO — The sun set Chicago Horizons of the Major Indoor Soccer League here last week when the team announced it will cease operations after its first year in the league. An MISL spokesman said Thursday that the league, revoked the Horizons' franchise after owner Bob Schermer failed to sell the team.

All of the former Chicago players have been declared free agents. The team failed to make the players' last scheduled payment.

Musial to be chairman

ST. LOUIS — Former Cardinal baseball great Stan Musial has agreed to serve as chairman for the Bob Bauman Athletic Fund drive at St. Louis University.

Musial will spearhead the effort to raise $75,000 for Billiken athletics. The funds will then be used by any one of the 12 intercollegiate sports at St. Louis University.

Longtime Billiken's trainer, Bob Bauman is the namesake for the fund-raising drive. Bauman was the athletic team trainer for more than a half century at St. Louis University, stretching from 1928-1979.

And when he wasn't curing the bumps and bruises of Billiken athletes, Bauman was serving as a baseball trainer. He first worked for the St. Louis Browns (1953-54) and then the Cardinals (1954-present).

"We're delighted for two reasons," said Billiken Athletic Director Ron Ekker. "It should be an avenue to supplement our income which is important to any athletic department at this time. And secondly, it involves a man who has probably helped more athletes than any other man at this University."

The drive for the Bauman Athletic Fund will kick off Thursday, Aug. 20, with a dinner in the Imperial Room of Stan Musial and Biggie's Restaurant at 5230 Oakland Avenue. For more information, those interested may call 653-3177.

Interest rates hiked on veterans policies

The annual interest rate charged by the Veterans Administration on National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) policy loans has been increased to 11 percent effective July 29.

NSLI coverage was provided service personnel on active duty from Oct. 8, 1940, through April 24, 1951. Those who converted this World War II coverage to a permanent plan may obtain loans up to 94 percent of the cash value of their individual policy. In fiscal year 1980, VA made about 96,000 loans on NSLI policies.

The July 29 change does not affect the loan interest rate on United States Government Life Insurance (USGLI) policies. VA joined on interest rates on USGLI policies, which were extended to military personnel who served between May 1919 and April 1951, are set by law.

LAWNS DAMAGED

WINDOWS BROKEN
Vandals drove through two yards Tuesday night, damaging the lawn of James Monaghan, 47 Janday Lane, and the lawn and three shrubs of Cecil Miner, 46 Terrace Lane.

Also on Tuesday night, a bullet broke a 4x5-foot window at the Louis Agency, 2800 Madison Ave., green apples broke a storm door window at the Mike Orescovich home, 3135 Princeton, and a slingshot bearing broke a large window at the Payless Shoe Store, 3020 Madison Ave.

The loan interest rate on NSLI policies was increased to 5 percent in 1971. Since that time, other investments made for the insurance trust funds have yielded increasingly higher earnings and dividends for policy holder. The increased interest rate will permit earnings on policy loans to become comparable with other investments.

Summer Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. John Selph

Selph-Nonn

The wedding of Miss Theresa Leha-Konn and John R. Selph was solemnized at 6 o'clock in the evening of Aug. 1 at the Word of Life Tabernacle with the Rev. Henry Crippen officiating. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nonn, Rural Route Two, Granite City. The groom is the son of Mrs. Alice Wilshewski of Moscow, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Roby O. Selph, 4029 Rode Ave.

Wedding music included "If" and "You Needed Me" sung by Tammy and Ron Stegelmeyer.

For her wedding, the bride wore a formal white gown with a high stand-up ruffle collar, sheer yoke with lace motifs and long tapered sleeves also enhanced with a delicate lace.

A pleated peplum marked the natural waistline, and accented the softly flowing skirt and chapel train which was also accented with lace medallions.

Her circular veil of bridal illusion was bordered with scallop lace and attached to a halo headband decorated with clusters of daisies, roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor Miss Pattie Dunham chose a pastel blue A-line designed gown with a matching lace jacket. She wore blue rosebuds in her hair and carried a floral arrangement of blue roses intermingled with baby's breath.

Both bridesmaids, Miss Noreen Thomas and Miss Lynda Canady selected pink A-line dresses to match the honor attendant. They also wore roses in their hair and carried bouquets of roses and baby's breath in a pink hue.

Mrs. Nonn, mother of the bride, was attired in a floor length blue lace gown and wore a corsage of yellow roses and baby's breath.

The groom's mother appeared in a long cream and burgundy color gown complemented with a corsage of burgundy roses.

Laurie Withers attended the guest book at a reception held at the Moose Lodge.

The newlywed couple honeymooned in the Ozarks and are now residing in Granite City. Both are graduates of North High School.

Navy Mothers aids veteran

Quad-City Navy Mothers, Chapter 650, sent donations of $25 each to the Memphis Naval Hospital and the Naval Hospital in Jacksonville, Fla., and $25 to a Navy veteran, following a monthly meeting held Thursday night at the VFW Hall.

Final arrangements will be announced at a later meeting the commander noted.

The special prizes for the evening went to Mrs. Ramsey and Jean Miller and the mystery package was awarded to Verna Spurrier. Commander Ramsey added the next social meeting is set for Aug. 27 at the VFW.

Harizal-Gasparovic

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on June 20 of Miss Shawn Denise Gasparovic and Christopher John Harizal.

The Rev. James Shortall officiated at the 2 o'clock afternoon ceremony which was followed by an evening reception hosted at the Croatian Home in Madison.

Parents of the bride are Andrew Gasparovic and Mrs. Leonard Perry, all of Granite City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harizal also of Granite City.

The bride chose a formal ivory chiffonette gown fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline of Alencon lace etched with pearls, an empire bodice accented with lace and long tapered sleeves.

A deep flounce of crystal pleating, topped with lace motifs, encircled the skirt and chapel train.

She wore a lace covered picture hat with tulle which fell softly in the back to the end of her train. She held a cascade bouquet of ivory carnations, daisies and delphiniums with pink tiger lilies, freesia, golden forget-me-nots, baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Jeffery Cavine, a sister of the bride, as honor attendant and Miss Paulette Zagari, Miss Ann Harizal, the groom's sister, Mary Zotti, Lisa Steele, Mrs. Steve Sedabres and Miss Debbie Hillmer, as bridesmaids.

They were gownned alike in full length ivory floral eyelet gowns designed with off the shoulder necklines defined with a matching ruffle and short sleeves.

The high rise waistlines were marked with an ivory eyelet trim, which was repeated on the front of the slightly gathered skirts and topped the hemline flounces. Each girl wore flowers in their hair and held bouquets of summer blossoms.

The flower girl, Tracy Sedacek, was dressed in an ivory eyelet frock created to match the adult attendants. She also wore a halo of flowers in her hair and carried a basket of pink carnation and tiger lilies. Matthew Cavie served as the ringbearer.

Jeff LaPiere attended the groom as best man. Andrew and Joseph Gasparovic, brothers of the bride, Phillip, John and Matthew Harizal, the groom's brothers, John Langston and Jeffrey Cavins, a brother-in-law of the bride, completed the corps of groomsmen and ughers.

A rehearsal dinner was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School. The bride is presently employed as unit secretary at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

The groom also graduated from Western Illinois University and is working as a senior cost and budget analyst at Emerson Electric.

They are residing in St. Louis following a wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

Nagy-Miller

The wedding of Miss Judy Ann Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Miller, 374 Ashdale Ave., Syracuse, N.Y., and Dr. D. Keith Nagy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis C. Nagy Jr., 3220 Wabash Ave., was solemnized on Saturday, Aug. 15, at the Erwin United Methodist Church in Syracuse.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 12 noon was the Rev. Donald W. Rush.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Miller wore a formal white gown designed with a molded bodice and V-style neckline, delicately appliqued with Venetian lace and seed pearls.

The decorative trim was repeated on the full length tapered sleeves, and the slender skirt was complemented with a Watteau train edged in matching lace.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a wide brim hat accented with Venise lace and seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Nancy L. Pisanzio, a sister of the bride, and cousins of the bride, Mrs. Mary Jo Cunningham and Miss Amy L. Lastreza, served as bridesmaids.

They were attired in yellow tulle floor length dresses worn with printed chiffon capelets and each held a cascade of yellow roses, silk blossoms and baby's breath.

The groom chose John A. Esanac as brother-in-law of the bride, as best man Jeffrey M. Friedman and Edward J. Mahoney Jr. were groomsmen.

Immediately following the service a reception was held at the Hancock Air Force Base Officers Club in Syracuse. Members of the wedding party and their families were entertained at a rehearsal dinner at the Pub in the Park Restaurant in Liverpool, N.Y.

The newlywed couple departed for a wedding trip to St. Thomas and Virgin Islands and will make their home in Toledo, Ill., upon their return.

A 1973 graduate of Henninger High School in Syracuse, the bride also graduated from Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y., with a B.S. degree. She received a M.A. degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University in N.J.

Pat McMillan at conference

Pat McMillan from Granite City joined 7,000 parents and health leaders from 30 nations and six continents for the Eighth International Conference of La Leche League at Chicago's Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Over 200 speakers addressed the delegates at the four day conference, covering all medical, nutritional and behavioral aspects of child care which are directly related to breastfeeding, according to the delegate.

La Leche League is the only international organization whose major purpose is to help mothers who want to breastfeed their babies. The seven mothers who founded the League in 1956, out of their own need for information, had no idea that twenty-five years later their organization would reach one million mothers annually. Headquartered in Franklin Park, Illinois, the League's mother-to-mother network now includes over 12,000 certified leaders and 4,500 groups in forty-three countries, she added.

La Leche League has influenced an entire generation of mothers, has changed the course of infant feeding practices, and has brought about a reviewed interest in the age old art of breastfeeding. In conjunction with the Conference and Twenty-Fifth Anniversary celebration, "The Week of the Breastfed Baby" was proclaimed by Governor James Thompson to focus attention of the babies in Illinois who have benefited from breastfeeding.

La Leche League holds meetings monthly to acquaint those interested with the physical, psychological and practical aspects of breastfeeding.

During the special hour Eileen Anderson led the group in several games.

It was announced an all church gathering was held at the church on Thursday evening. A discussion was also held on the forthcoming apple butter day set for Sept. 25 and 26th at the church.

The next meeting scheduled for Sept. 3 will feature a program on money management to be presented by a bank official, it was announced by Helen Pfeiffer, chairman for the session.

Historical Society announces fall plans

The board of directors of the Old Six Mile Historical Society met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Engleke with President Ron Coleman in charge. He announced that several local groups have contacted him desiring that representatives of the society speak on its behalf.

The board voted to develop an informative pamphlet to be distributed to the general public regarding membership in the society. Henry Bienenick is coordinating this project. Everyone is invited to join and those who joined last June for the three-month period are reminded that their full membership fee is due before Oct. 1. Anyone joining from June 1, 1981 through May 31, 1982, will be considered a charter member of the society, it was noted.

The style of membership card was also discussed and the president was authorized to secure a printer for the cards as soon as possible.

Possible museum sites were discussed but no immediate plans were developed. Members of the society are interested in participating in local fairs or gatherings so that information about the society may be furnished to a large number of people, the president added.

The constitution and bylaws of the society, which were adopted last May and June, are being forwarded to the Illinois Secretary of State, along with other required information necessary for a state charter.

Assignments to the society's standing committees were discussed with tentative names being suggested. Some committees have been active since last spring while the others will be announced at the first fall meeting, on Sept. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road. Waldo Frohardt will be the speaker at the September meeting.

Board members in attendance were Mrs. Engleke, Coleman, Bienenick, Frohardt, John Fornasewski, Mrs. Darlene Kahn, Mrs. Marguerite Lexow, and Mrs. Barbara Williams.

Girl Scout at national camp

Jill Kinder, a River Bluffs Council Girl Scout from Troop 328, attended "Try It Now," a nationally-promoted Girl Scout Wider Opportunity. The event took place in west central Ohio, and was co-sponsored by the Buckeye Trails and Appleside Ridge Girl Scout Councils.

When applying for the event, the girls were required to have references as to their skills and character and an interview, which were then sent to the sponsoring council. The Buckeye Trails and Appleside Ridge Councils then selected 80 girls from 20 states and also Switzerland and Zambia. Ellen Rea of Hardin, IL, also represented River Bluffs Council. Camp Myerach, near Bellefontaine, was the base for the event, where the girls lived in platform tents and covered wagons.

As implied by the title, "Try It Now," the girls were allowed choices from a rainbow of activities during the project. Jill chose kayaking, snorkeling, sailing, and synchronized swimming at Camp Myerach's waterfront.

During craft sessions she made a sand candle, soldered a stained glass ornament, and made an English brass rubbing. She also participated in a videotape session. Going aloft in a hot-air balloon was another thrill for Jill and the other participants.

During the evenings at camp the girls divided into groups and took turns entertaining the others and acquainting them with the area of the country. Each girl brought swaps representative of her area to exchange. Bluegrass music and folk and square dancing entertained the girls several evenings. Other activities available at Camp Myerach included soccer, volleyball, swimming and canoeing lessons, exercise dancing, orienteering, and new games. Other sessions included clowning.

ARSON SUSPECTED

A fire at 1:14 a.m. Saturday extinguished by the Granite City Fire Department at the mobile home of Silver Pigg 2438 Ohio Ave., is believed to be arson according to the fire department. They allegedly found a 2-gallon gas can in the alley near a fence behind the property at 2440 Ohio Ave. Neighbors said they heard a loud "puff" noise and first saw flames in the garden area around the Pigg residence. Flames later damaged the siding, underpinning and wooden back porch of the mobile structure, it was reported. No one was seen in the area just prior to the fire, the neighbors added.

calligraphy, astronomy, drawing, sketching, watercolor, "survival" skills, fashion-modeling, nail-makeup, photography, edible plants, and tombstone rubbings.

In addition to the myriad of activities available at Camp Myerach, the girls all chose a side trip, and aristo-tours. Jill went with a group of participants to Hocking Valley Ranch. From there they either went back packing, canoeing, horseback riding, or to Columbus to visit the state capitol. The local scout chose a canoe trip on the Mad River. At the same time, other girls went to King's Island, an amusement park near Cincinnati. Shorter side trips toured the Zane Caverns, the Neil Armstrong Museum, and Mad River Pottery. All the girls made a one-day trip to Columbus to a museum, Old Man's Cave, and shopping at the French Market.

In the event's closing, campfire girls contributed ashes collected from Girl Scout campfires around the world. Each girl came home with a vial of ashes representing campfires as far back as the 1900 World Conference, as far-flung as Japan, India and Germany.

Girls participating in "Try It Now" enjoyed a 3-day "Home Hospitality" session at either the beginning or end of the program. Jill and Ellen stayed at the homes of Conrad and Kaye Lambert, a Girl Scout family of Bellefontaine, Ohio. The Lamberts took the girls to the movies, horseback riding, and on the Alpine Slide.

Jill will be an 8th grader at Coolidge Junior High this year and is the daughter of William and Dana Kinder, 17 Del Rio. Currently two other members of Troop 328 are participating in Wide Opportunities at Kentucky Lake and National Center West in Wyoming.

Waterborne shipping up

Preliminary figures compiled by the St. Louis District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, indicate that waterborne commerce tonnages are running well ahead of the record-setting figures of 1980.

Through July 1981, river cargoes are exceeding the previous year by 1 million to 2 million tons.

In 1980, the figures represented a 14-16 percent increase over the old marks set in 1978. With continued favorable operational conditions, those marks could be eclipsed by another 10-20 percent increase in 1981, a spokesman said.

A comparison of cumulative tonnages in 1980 and 1981 shows:

Locks 24 — 15,907,418 and 16,901,085.
Locks 25 — 14,905,651 and 16,917,807.

Alton Locks 26 — 36,835,994 and 37,844,891.
Granite City Locks 27 — a total of 40,227,578 through July 1980 and 41,126,241 tons through July 1981.

Kaskaskia — 1,082,200 and 1,234,055.
July tonnage figures were somewhat less in 1981, perhaps indicating changes in grain harvest patterns or high water and flooding delays, the spokesman commented.

San Francisco welcomes BPW

By VALERIE EVENDEN

An enthusiastic audience of more than 3,000 filled the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco, Calif., for the 47th national convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. of California welcomed the delegates and spoke on the importance of BPW's effort on behalf of women.

"This is a decade of decision," Gov. Brown said. "Your support of the rights of women is critical—both to the unfolding of human potential...and to the economy of this country."

"Among those attending the five-day convention from the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Clubs, were Ollie Derr, president, Sharold Yount, president-elect, Rose Ezell, first vice-president, and Pearl Kennerly, Junia Williams, LaVelle Stephens, Bette Nugent, Hazel Rodgers, Anna McGates, Pauline Weir and Ruth Milhouser.

Retiring National BPW President Dorine Chancellor's message to the opening night audience stressed the importance of strengthening BPW's efforts to achieve women's rights.

"There is no need to take a back seat in our quest for equal rights," she said. "BPW has the talent and the expertise to get a fair share."

Mrs. Chancellor urged members to work to see that women's programs are not left out when block grant funds are distributed.

"Time of action is now," she stressed. Juanita Booker, who was selected by President Reagan to sing the National Anthem at his inauguration, was the vocalist and gave a moving rendition of the National Anthem and The Battle Hymn of the Republic.

The colors and sounds of San Francisco filled the auditorium during one entertainment period as the Chinese Drum and Bugle Corps presented a Chinese New Year's parade, complete with a 150-foot dragon.

An election of national officers, requiring three ballots for the office of third vice-president, followed with the installation and several receptions were held during the convention highlights.

Phyllis Harrison of Michigan was installed as president of the National BPW Federation. The installation ceremonies also featured a parade, led by the Michigan delegation.

Harlows end 50-year alliance with Supreme

By GARY SCHNEIDER of the Press-Record

When Lloyd Harlow started a small radio shop in the basement of his home in the 2200 block of Madison Avenue in 1931, he never dreamed it would grow into the large Supreme Appliances, 2109 Johnson Road, or that in 1981, they would be announcing that they are leaving their business after 50 years of selling radios, appliances and a newly-invented toy television. They were one of the first stores to sell televisions in this area and still have a three-inch screen model which was given away as a prize at the Madison Theater.)

As the business grew, Harlow decided he needed a bookkeeper, but he didn't need to hire one. The wife he married in 1933, the former Miss Georgia Watkins, was willing to assist him and went to school to learn the business.

She had little or no time between nursing, school and the business. Nursing was only demanding 12 hours of her day and she was being paid $5 for each 12-hour shift.

Mr. Harlow, likewise, kept busy, working days at the former Commonwealth plant and repairing and selling radios in his basement at night.

Back then, the Harlows never dreamed of competing with the bigger stores and heard stories of factors, promotions that sent the owners of the successful retail stores to far away places for vacations as rewards for their sales.

Eventually, with work, the Harlows found themselves the guests of factor-paid promotions when the basement store grew into a full-time successful business, first at 908 Madison Ave., and then to the present location in 1957.

"We have been to Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, Europe,

New York and almost everywhere," Mrs. Harlow said of the promotional prizes. "We even won a panel truck in 1959," Mr. Harlow added.

It was on these trips that the Harlows learned their love for boating, fishing and "shelling," or finding sea shells on islands.

"We are going to enjoy our retirement, because we are going to spend most of our time in Florida enjoying these things," Mrs. Harlow predicted.

They also plan to visit their daughters, Shirley Lybarger of Granite City, who worked many years at Supreme, and Judy Redmon of Collinsville, a school teacher who helped occasionally with the business, when needed.

Supreme Appliances is not going out of business, but will move to the Taylor Rental building on Lake Drive in Pontoon Beach, where it will be operated as a parts and service business by Hank Skinner, an employee of the Harlows since he was 13 years old, and that was 36 years ago.

The present Supreme Appliances building has been leased to J & R Bicycle Shop, which will move there from Belleme Village Shopping Center when the building is available.

Retirement preparations are outlined

People in the local area who plan to retire at the end of the year should take some time soon to think about Social Security retirement benefits, Oliver Holmes said today.

"A person should apply for Social Security benefits two or three months before he or she plans to retire. This way, benefits can begin shortly after income from work stops," he commented.

"Before applying, a person should get the necessary proofs together," Holmes said. "This will save time at application time."

"The first item a person needs is his or her Social Security card or a record of the number."

"Next, proof of date of birth is required. Preferred proof is an official record of birth or baptism recorded before age five."

"If this does not exist, other proofs can be submitted. People at the East St. Louis or Belleville Social Security office can tell the individual what kinds of evidence can be used."

"Records that must be used include school, church, state or federal census, insurance policies, marriage, passport, employment, military service, children's birth certificates, union, immigration, and naturalization."

"This is not an exclusive list, and other records may be acceptable."

"Forms W-2 (Wage and Tax Statement) for the past two years should be provided."

"A self-employed person should have copies of his or her self-employment tax returns for the past two years. These are needed because recent earnings reports may not be in our records."

"A husband or wife who also plans to apply should have about the same documents. A marriage certificate may be requisite but is not needed in all cases."

"Information about any previous marriages is also required."

"Birth certificates of any young, unmarried children should be obtained as well."

"Additional information may be required, depending on the particulars of a certain case. The people at each Social Security office will be glad to answer any questions about retirement applications."

The East St. Louis office is located at 650 Missouri Ave. and the telephone number is 274-4100 or toll free, Enterprise 1-855.

The Belleville office is at 218 W. Main St.

SIUE prepares booklet of state graphic data

A publication containing graphic data on Southwestern Illinois has been released by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The purpose of the book is to inform potential developers, city planners, and builders about the resources of the area.

Prepared by the Office of Area Development, the book contains information concerning population, government, industry, transportation, education, and communications. Maps included in the publication include:

Physical: landforms, coal reserves, mined areas, existing and potential reservoirs;

Transportation: highways, railroads, airports, and regional port regions;

Population: by county, townships, and incorporated areas;

Education: high school enrollment figures, junior college districts, and public and private university enrollments;

Communications: towns with daily, bi-weekly, weekly and bi-monthly newspapers, and telephone service areas;

Government: chambers of commerce, legislative districts, congressional districts, regional planning commissions, and major public recreation sites; and Industry: major manufacturing firms.

The individual maps were produced over a period of several years by SIUE undergraduate and graduate students majoring in geography and planning.

The Office of Area Development has also made available a book of maps showing the industrial sites in Madison, St. Clair and Monroe Counties.

The book contains more than 60 topographical maps of developed, semi-developed and undeveloped industrial sites in Madison County, more than 80 maps of sites in St. Clair County, and 13 maps of sites in Monroe County.

Information on how to obtain copies of either publication is available by telephoning Robert Koepke, coordinator, of Area Development at SIUE, at 692-3688.

$100,000 bond in shooting

Evertt O. Baker, 44, of 406 Broadway, Venice, was held Friday in the Madison County jail on $100,000 bond, charged with aggravated battery and armed violence.

Baker allegedly shot John Brown of East St. Louis at 4:05 p.m. Wednesday, when Baker allegedly went to Baker's residence inquiring about a mutual friend.

Michael Andrew Akins, 23, of St. Louis, who has an alias of George Lamont Garrett, was released after paying a fine of $325 on a charge of giving police false information and no firearms identification.

A third man was questioned and released without charges.

Brown, according to police, was not injured seriously.

A 12-gauge shotgun was taken as evidence and believed to be the weapon used.

FINAL TOUCHES are put on a business transaction as Mrs. Georgia Harlow, seated, and her husband Lloyd, upper left, prepare to end their 50-year alliance with Supreme Appliances. They are shown with Hank Skinner, who will operate the Supreme business as a parts and repair shop in Pontoon Beach.

MR. CONTRACTOR—The "Julie" service can save you time, money and headaches

Anytime you have to excavate, your first step should be to phone toll-free to 800/892-0123 at least 48 hours in advance. That's the number for "J.U.L.I.E." which stands for Joint Utilities Location Information for Excavators.

J.U.L.I.E. is a service created by a combination of all Illinois utility companies for professional excavators. Homeowners, too, are urged to use this service before doing any digging. When you call J.U.L.I.E., give the representative the exact location where you plan to dig. If there are any pipes, cables, lines or mains in the excavation area, utility personnel will be out to mark the facilities so you can work around them.

Careless digging can endanger utility services. Don't take a chance.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF INTENT TO GRANT AN AIR POLLUTION PERMIT TO GRANITE CITY STEEL

Granite City Steel is proposing to replace its old C Battery Coke ovens with a new battery and has requested that it be granted an air pollution permit so construction can begin on the facility.

The Illinois EPA has reviewed the plans for the new battery and has concluded that Lowest Achievable Emission Rate requirements will be satisfied and that the construction will comply with state air pollution rules and regulations, providing certain conditions are met.

National Steel Corporation and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and the USEPA have signed a Consent Decree specifying pollution control measures which must be used in the future at Granite City Steel. The Consent Decree has been filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois (C.A. Number 81-309), and it sets emission limits for "C" Battery coke ovens.

The statutes and rules guiding the review of this permit application include the Illinois Environmental Protection Act, as amended, Illinois Revised Statutes, Ch. 15, Section 100 et seq., Illinois Pollution Control Board Rules and Regulations, Chapter 2: Air Pollution, and the Agency's Rules for Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Air Pollution Sources Affecting Nonattainment Areas.

Persons wishing additional information may review the Granite City Steel permit application, the Illinois EPA's findings and conditions for approval and a summary of the application at the Granite City Mayor's Office, 2000 Edison, Granite City, or the Illinois EPA's Regional office, 115 West Main, Collinsville or at the Illinois EPA Library, 2200 Churchill Road, Springfield.

The public comment period begins August 17, 1981 and closes September 17, 1981. Illinois EPA rules allow for public hearings on permit applications if the Agency receives a written request during the comment period from 25 persons, either individually or in a petition, or a request from a member of the Illinois General Assembly or from a chief executive officer from a county or municipality in the affected area.

Persons who have questions about the permit, who wish to submit written comments, or who wish to request public hearing should contact Perry, Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, 2200 Churchill Road, Springfield, Illinois 61706, 217-782-7327.

White-tailed deer now state animal

Governor James R. Thompson made the white-tailed deer, which is officially known as Odocoileus virginianus borealis, the official state animal Thursday in a bill-signing ceremony.

The governor approved House Bill 192, which implements the results of an election held among Illinois' public school children last year. The school children voted by an overwhelming margin, 258,709 votes out of a total of 694,658 cast, to name the white-tailed deer the state animal. The nearest competitor was the raccoon, 70,000 votes behind the deer.

"Children across the state got a taste of the elective process through this legislation," Thompson said during a signing ceremony at the Illinois State Fair. "The school children of Illinois selected well, for not only is the animal beautiful, it can be found in all 102 counties of our state."

The measure was sponsored by Representative Clarence Darrow, of Rock Island, and Senator Gene Johns, of Marion.

Bill provides loans for college students

Governor James R. Thompson signed a bill on Thursday giving the Illinois State Scholarship Commission the authority to make federal loans to parents of college or university students.

This bill will help open up another avenue for parents to aid their sons or daughters in getting a quality education," the Governor said.

Senate Bill 1201 authorizes the Illinois State Scholarship Commission to administer the Parent Loan Program as provided for in the 1980 Federal Higher Education Amendments.

Under that federal program, guaranteed loans would be made available to the parents of qualified students if the parents are Illinois residents.

The Scholarship Commission will begin taking applications on January 1, 1982.

As approved by Congress, provisions of the loan program would allow parents to borrow up to $3,000 annually for up to five years at 14 percent interest. The repayment on the loans would begin 60 days after they are received. However, approval of these specific provisions still await action by President Reagan.

The measure signed by Governor Thompson was sponsored by Senator Howard Carroll, of Chicago, and Representative Fred Turk, of Peoria.

Meetings on unemployment law changes

The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce will sponsor seven all-day conferences in regional locations throughout Illinois to explain in detail for employers extensive new changes in the state's unemployment insurance law.

The recently-enacted benefit and law changes will go into effect Oct. 1, 1981, and Jan. 1, 1982.

A panel of experts will explain changes in eligibility, benefit amounts, disqualifications, tax rate, taxable wage base, forms and records.

The conference schedule:

Sept. 9 — Rockford, Ramada Inn.

Sept. 10 — Moline, Holiday Inn of Moline.

Sept. 11 — Peoria, Ramada Inn.

Sept. 13 — Joliet, Holiday Inn.

Sept. 16 — Chicago, Marriott O'Hare.

Sept. 30 — Collinsville, Holiday Inn.

Oct. 1 — Decatur, Sheraton Inn.

Each meeting will start at 9:30 a.m. and adjourn at 3 p.m.

Among the speakers will be Lee Kuczyński, chief legal counsel, Illinois Bureau of Employment Security, Chicago; Robert Brown, manager, field services, north central division, James E. Frick, Inc., St. Louis; and Leonard Day, ISCC labor relations manager.

The registration fee of $60 for ISCC members and $90 for non-members includes luncheon and conference materials.

And why I hope you do, too."

Keep Red Cross ready.
